

Guided Iceland Circle

Description

Day 1: Arrival Day

Upon arrival at Keflavik International Airport, travelers will individually transfer by Flybus shuttle bus to their accommodation in Reykjavik. If time allows, there will be an opportunity to explore Iceland's vibrant capital city on their own.

Overnight location: Reykjavik Natura Berjaya Iceland Hotels or similar. Dinner is on your own. (50km / 31mi)

Day 2: Volcano Crater, Fjords & Mountains

At 09:00, travelers will meet the tour guide and depart from Reykjavik Natura Berjaya Iceland Hotels. The journey will begin by traveling west along the scenic Hvalfjörður fjord and through the town of Borgarnes. An easy hike on Grábrók volcano crater amidst a greenish lava field will be enjoyed. The journey continues north with a visit to Glaumbær, one of Iceland's most beautiful turf house farms and folk museums. The drive will then take travelers along a scenic fjord landscape and over several mountain passes until reaching Akureyri, the capital of North Iceland. Upon arrival, there will be time to walk around and explore the beautiful town of Akureyri.

Overnight location: Akureyri Berjaya Iceland Hotels or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (415km / 258mi)

Day 3: The Capital of North Iceland, Lake Mývatn & Geothermal Baths

In the morning, travelers will explore the town of Akureyri, known as the capital of North Iceland, and enjoy the panoramic view over the Eyjafjörður fjord. Optional whale watching tours are available at 09:00. In the afternoon, the journey will continue to Goðafoss, the waterfalls of the Gods. Travelers will then explore Lake Mývatn, renowned as a geological wonderland with abundant birdlife. They will see the strange lava formations at Kálfstraund, the pseudo craters at Skútustaðir, and the tephra cone Hverfjall. The day will end with relaxation in the geothermal Mývatn Nature Baths, offering a fantastic view over the area.

Overnight location: Mývatn Berjaya Iceland Hotels or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (120km / 75mi)

Day 4: Lava Labyrinth, Hot Springs & Travel East

In the morning, travelers will walk through the lava labyrinth at Dimmuborgir, known as "the dark castles," hoping to catch a glimpse of the trolls said to live there. The afternoon includes a visit to the hot spring area of Námaskarð, featuring bubbling mud pools and steaming solfataras. The journey will then head through the uninhabited highlands and moon-like surroundings to East Iceland. From June to August, a detour to the powerful waterfall Dettifoss is included.

Overnight location: Höra Berjaya Iceland Hotels or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (250km / 155mi)

155mi)

Day 5: East Fjords, Glacier Lagoon & Diamond Beach

The day will be spent admiring the dramatic fjord landscape and its tiny fishing villages in the East Fjords. Along the route, there will be a visit to an attractive stone and mineral collection. In the afternoon, travelers will see Vatnajökull, Europe's largest glacier, visible across Southeast Iceland. The day will conclude with a visit to Jökulsárlón glacial lagoon, filled with floating icebergs, where seals can often be seen swimming in the arctic waters. A boat tour between floating icebergs is included from May through September. Travelers can walk on the black sandy beach known as The Diamond Beach, where large icebergs get stranded.

Overnight location: Fosshotel Glacier Lagoon or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (260km / 161mi)

Day 6: Vatnajökull National Park & South Coast

Travelers will journey along the southern part of the Vatnajökull glacier, getting a glimpse of Europe's second-largest national park, which features Iceland's highest mountains and largest glacier. In the afternoon, the scenic drive continues across the Eldhraun lava field, through the south coast's sandy desert, overlooked by mountainous cliffs, glaciers, and waterfalls. Travelers will experience the unique Icelandic Lava Show and stroll along the black lava beach of Reynisfjara near Vök. They will also visit the impressive Skógafoss waterfall and the high but narrow Seljalandsfoss waterfall, which features an exciting trail behind the fall.

Overnight location: Stracta Hotel Hella or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (380km / 235mi)

Day 7: Icelandic Horses & Golden Circle

The day will be dedicated to exploring the Golden Circle sights. Travelers will start at Friðheimar to learn about the Icelandic horse and visit a geothermal greenhouse. The journey continues to the Geysir geothermal fields, where they can see hot springs and the erupting Strokkur. They will visit Gullfoss, "the golden falls," and travel to Thingvellir National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Returning to Reykjavík, a short city tour will highlight the capital's main attractions.

Overnight location: Reykjavík Natura Berjaya Iceland Hotels or similar. Breakfast included. Lunch and dinner are on your own. (160km / 99mi)

Day 8: Departure Day

On the final day, travelers will transfer individually by Flybus shuttle from their accommodation in Reykjavik to Keflavik International Airport for their departure.
